

Mijke Hoogervorst

Mijke is an internationally represented Dutch classic model. When Mijke was 19 she walked a fashion show for a student on a Dutch model academy. During the event a make-up artist suggested she gave modelling a serious try and gave her the number of a very known agency in Holland who were very happy to have her on board! After that things moved fast. A few months later she found herself in Milan and a few after that, Mijke was working for Italian Vogue in Havana. During these years she worked with many high profile photographers and luxury fashion brands, travelling to shoots all around the globe.

Outside of modelling Mijke has many different interests. She has worked as a nurse alongside her modelling career in the past and now she successfully designs her own clothes which she sells in various cities around Holland and internationally.
